Scope and Content Note

Spanning 1923-2011, the collection includes publications from the Schreiner Institute, Schreiner College, and Schreiner University eras. It includes serials, journals, newsletters, student directories, bulletins, course catalogs, class schedules, faculty manuals, student handbooks, calendars, tuition and fee schedules, and promotional materials.

The Serials and Journals Collection (Series 1; 1933-2011) includes Schreiner Institute Bulletin Ex-Student Edition, Scene, and Inside Schreiner. Note: Serials and journals produced by students (e.g., The Muse, Mountaineer newspaper, etc.) are maintained as part of the Student-produced Publications Collection (SC 504).

The Directories (Series 2; 1965-2008) in this collection include student directories published internally and those produced for distribution among the Schreiner community. The Schreiner Finder includes photographs in addition to contact information.

The Bulletins and Course Catalogs (Series 3; 1923-2011) date back to the first year Schreiner was open. The Schreiner Institute Bulletin contained course catalog information, as well as lists including current students, faculty, and administrators.

Class Schedules (Series 4; 1985-2007) includes class schedules for Schreiner classes.

Calendars and Student Guides (Series 5) Student Guides and Calendars include the Student Guide, which contains information pertaining to the University's alma mater, mascot, school colors, academic programs, student services, campus activities, and policies.

Tuition and Fee Schedules (Series 7) includes the costs associated with attending Schreiner.

Various Newsletters (Series 8) include sporadic departmental newsletters and short-term newsletters, often created for a specific purpose or initiative.

Brochures and Other Promotional Materials (Series 9) include postcards and brochures advertising Schreiner and other promotional materials used to advertise the university and its functions. These brochures are usually not attributed to particular university departments.
